Course Description

The study of people, their origins, culture, technology, economy and impact on the environment. The manner in which people attempt to impose order upon the surface of the earth. Concepts of relative location are introduced with particular regard to both the external orientation and the internal organization of urban areas.

Course Objectives:

The primary objective of this course is to provide an overview of the discipline of human geography. Students will learn about the distribution of population, cultures, languages, religions, ethnicities, political systems, and economic activities on the surface of the Earth.

Course Learning Outcomes:

The Department of Geography is committed to student knowledge and skill development. The table below lists the key learning outcomes for this course, the program-learning outcomes they facilitate and the expected level of achievement.

Course Learning Outcomes	PLO(s)	Level(s)
Learn the essential difference between human and physical geography	6,7	1
Learn the two main purposes of maps	6,7	1
Learn the concept of map scales	6,7	1
Learn the difference between absolute and relative distance	6,7	1
Learn the attributes of the different types of map projections	6,7	1

Learn the fundamental principles of population geography	1,7	1
Learn the concepts of demographic and epidemiological transition	1,2,7	1
Learn the major push and pull factors responsible for migration	1,2,3,5,7	1
Learn the difference between folk and popular culture	1,2,7	1
Learn the concepts of language families, branches, and groups	1,7	1
Learn the spatial distribution of the world's religions	1,2,7	1
Learn the concepts of nation, state, and nation-state	1,2,7,5	1
Learn the spatial distribution of economic activities	1,2,3,5	1

PLOs = Program Learning Outcomes: 1 = reflect and communicate diverse human-environment perspectives, 2 = identify and explain human-environment processes, 3 = implement sampling, data collection, analyses and communication methods, 4 = analyze spatial and temporal aspects of human-environment systems, 5 = employ knowledge, arguments, and methodologies for solving human-environment problems, 6 = evaluate geospatial data and manipulate it to create cartographic products, 7 = communicate geographic concepts using oral, written, graphic, and cartographic modes, and 8 = demonstrate literacy skills. Levels: (1) Introductory, (2) Intermediate, (3) Advanced.

Prerequisites: N/A

Readings

The required textbook for this class is:

Rubenstein, J.M. 2017. The Cultural Landscape: An Introduction to Human Geography, Twelfth Edition. Pearson Prentice Hall. New York, NY.

Additional readings will also be posted on D2L.

Assignments, Exams, and Weighting

This course will have eight lab assignments, each worth 2.0%, for a total of 16%, and three midterm examinations, which will take place during regularly scheduled class time. The first midterm will be held in the classroom on Thursday 14 February and will be worth 37%, the second midterm will be held on Thursday 21 March and will be worth 37% and the third midterm will be held in class on Thursday 11 April and will be worth 10%. It is not essential to pass all components of the course to receive a passing grade in the course.

The lab schedule will be made available on the first day of class, and will be posted on D2L. Lab exercises will, where possible, complement lecture material.

The lab assignments and the midterms will be marked on a numerical (percentage) basis. The course grade is calculated by using the weights indicated above and then converted into a letter grade. As a guide to determining standing, these letter grade equivalences will generally apply:

A+ 100, A 90 to 99, A- 85 to 89, B+ 80 to 84, B 75 to 79,
B- 70 to 74, C+ 65 to 69, C 60 to 64, C- 55 to 59, D+ 50 to 54, D 45 to 49, F 0 to 44

THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP OR DEFERRED EXAMINATIONS under any circumstances, nor may the examinations be written early. Students unable to complete a lab assignment or write an examination because of documented illness, family emergency, or religious observance will have the weight shifted to other components of course work. Missed labs will be equally reweighted on to the other labs and missed examinations will be equally reweighted on to the other examinations. Arrangements for the reweighting of a missed grade must be made with the course or lab instructor within 15 days after the grade has been made available.

Students seeking reappraisal of a piece of graded term work cannot discuss their work with the course or lab instructor within the first 48 hours after the grade has been made available and must discuss their work within 15 days after the grade has been made available. Unclaimed work will be available from the course or lab instructor during office hours.

Should a lab assignment for an entire lab section, or the writing of a midterm examination for the entire lecture section, become impossible due to events beyond the control of the relevant instructor (such as, and not exclusively consisting of: inclement weather, instructor's illness, unavailable facilities, a meteoric impact on the University campus, or other "acts of fate") the lab assignment or midterm examination will be written one week later. If the writing of the third midterm examination for the entire lecture section become impossible due to events beyond the control of the relevant instructor (such as, and not exclusively consisting of: inclement weather, instructor's illness, unavailable facilities, a meteoric impact on the University campus, or other "acts of fate") the third midterm examination will be reweighted on to both the first and second midterms.

WARNING: THIS IS NOT A CORRESPONDENCE COURSE! It is your responsibility to ensure that you attend class. It is not my responsibility to "fill you in" on what you miss if you are absent from a class. I will not answer questions that, in my opinion, are the result of nonattendance or lack of attention in class.

WARNING: THIS COURSE IS NOT AN "EASY A" The instructor of this course strictly adheres to the definition of letter grades in the University of Calgary Calendar. If you are taking this course in expectation of a high grade to facilitate business school, dentistry school, law school, medical school, urban planning graduate school, or veterinary school admission, please take something else! This course may be "only an option" for you, it is not "only an option" for the instructor!

Human subjects

Students are not expected, or allowed, to participate as subjects or researchers when research on human subjects may take place.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

Writing across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Academic Accommodations

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations, according to the university policies and procedures listed in the University Calendar.

The student accommodation policy can be found at: www.ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy. Students needing an accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Students needing an accommodation based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the Department Head (email: geograph@ucalgary.ca).

Principles of Conduct

The University of Calgary Calendar includes a statement on the Principles of conduct expected of all members of the University community (including students, faculty, administrators, any category of staff, practicum supervisors and volunteers) whether on or off the University's property. This statement applies in all situations where the members of the University community are acting in their University capacities. All Members of the University Community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with this statement which is available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j-2.html> Note: the instructor of this course has a zero-tolerance policy with respect to talking in class. People observed talking will be directed to leave and a refusal to leave will be regarded as an act of non-academic misconduct.

Plagiarism

Academic dishonesty is not an acceptable activity at the University of Calgary and students are strongly advised to read the Student Misconduct section in the University Calendar. Quite often, students are unaware of what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism. The most common are 1) presenting another student's work as your own 2) presenting an author's work or ideas as your own without proper referencing and 3) using work completed for another course. This activity will not be tolerated in this course and students conducting themselves in this manner will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the calendar. <http://www.ucalgary.ca/honesty/plagiarism>

Use of Electronic Devices in Classrooms

The use of electronic devices in class for photography, audio recording, and/or video recording is strictly prohibited. A violation of this policy will be regarded as an act of non-academic misconduct.

Rules Regarding Use of email

All emails to the instructor must be sent from a ucalgary.ca email address. The instructor will not reply to email messages that are sent from non-ucalgary.ca email addresses. The instructor will not reply to email question in the last twelve (12) hours before an examination. The email class list on D2L has been disabled but should it become available to students any use of it to communicate with other students is strictly prohibited. A violation of this policy will be regarded as an act of non-academic misconduct.

Re: Posting of Grades and Picking-up of Assignments

- All assignments and examinations will be handled personally.
- Grades will not be available at Geography's main office.
- Grades will not be posted on D2L

Wellness and Mental Health Resources

The University of Calgary recognizes the pivotal role that student mental health plays in physical health, social connectedness, and academic success and aspires to create a caring and supportive campus community where individuals can freely talk about mental health and receive supports when needed. We encourage you to explore the mental health resources available throughout the university community, such as counselling, self-help resources, peer support, or skills-building available through the SU Wellness Centre (Room 370, MacEwan Student Centre, <https://www.ucalgary.ca/wellnesscentre/services/mental-health-services>) and the Campus Mental Health Strategy website (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/mentalhealth/>).

Documentation for Absences or Missed Course Assessments

Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform the instructor as soon as possible. Instructors may request that evidence in the form of documentation be provided. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test. For information on possible forms of documentation, including statutory declarations, please see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/n-1.html>.
